

CONTRACTOR SELECTION SHEET

	Contractors Knowledge (0 to 5)	Licensed (Either 0 or 5)	Bonded (Either 0 or 5)	Insured (Either 0 or 5)	Years in Business (0 to 5)	Warranty on Labor (0 to 5)	Experience with Specific Project (0 to 5)	Contractors Reachability (0 to 5)
Company 1
Company 2
Company 3
Total
Your Contractor Selection:
Review After your Project is Completed:

Rating:

0 – Doesn't Exist or Not Available
5 – Best Rating

Definitions:

What does being licensed mean?
What does being bonded mean?

What does being insured mean?

ANSWER: Being licensed by your local government to engage in construction.
ANSWER: Being bonded means that a bonding agency has secured your contractor in case of an event in which the contractors doesn't finish the job or a mistake is made and protects the homeowner.
ANSWER: Being insured protects the homeowner in case one of your contractor's employees is hurt on the job and protects the homeowner from liability.

Note: Contractor Selection Sheet is not to be relied upon solely. Use good judgment.